Molly O'Shaughnessy is an accomplished AMI trainer as well as a consultant and lecturer. She has presented keynotes and workshops across the United States as well as in Canada, Australia, Mexico, China, and Europe. She earned her AMI Primary Diploma from The Montessori Training Center of Minnesota in 1976 and holds an M.Ed. from Loyola University, Maryland.

Since 1996, she has provided strategic leadership for the Montessori Center of Minnesota, serving as President and Director of Training. Molly helped spearhead Montessori Partners Serving All Children, an initiative launched by the Montessori Center of Minnesota in an ongoing effort to demonstrate the effectiveness of Montessori education, starting in early childhood, and its viability for all income levels, all races and all cultures. Montessori Partners is a collaborative of Twin Cities metro-area organizations; all committed to providing exceptional and quality early childhood education for low income and culturally rooted communities.
